

Carolyn Nickels-Cox

Thai 34 (1971-75), Secondary TEFL
1971-1973 Annukulnaree Girls' School,
Amphur Muang, Kalasin
1973-1975 Ministry of Education,
Bangkok

- Established current incarnation of Friends of Thailand in Summer, 2001
- B.Ed. English Literature, CWU
- MA Instructional Technologies, SFSU
- Language Development Specialist, State of California
- Career Experience: Middle and High School Teacher and At-Risk School Administrator, San Francisco Unified School District
- Home base: San Francisco

Contact Information: carolynnickels@earthlink.net

"Being a part of Friends of Thailand is so much fun because of all the wonderful people who make up the Peace Corps Thailand community. And it also means that I have never really left Peace Corps or Thailand. As with most others, the years I spent as a volunteer in the Kingdom shaped, to a large degree, who I was to become and still am. Many thanks to everyone who has contributed so much to the ongoing success of the organization. You are the best!"

