

COUNTRY DIRECTOR
HOWARD WILLIAMS

Howard Williams has 30 years of experience in designing, implementing, and evaluating education programs, including girls' education, as well as health, agricultural, and youth programs in Asia, Africa, the Middle East, Eastern Europe, Central America, and the U.S. Dr. Williams holds a B.S. in Social Studies Education, an M.S. in Social Sciences and Education, and a Ph.D. in International Development Education from Florida State University. Dr. Williams' experience includes building capacities of national and local agencies and organizations, providing direct technical assistance, development of university exchanges and partnerships, and volunteer assistance.

DIRECTOR OF MANAGEMENT AND OVERSEAS OPERATIONS
MARVIN PANNELL

Born in Thailand and raised in New Jersey, Marvin had an early career in international development and has worked in and visited more than 30 countries. After serving as a Peace Corps Volunteer in Thailand, he was selected as a Peace Corps Fellow, and later became a Director of Management and Operations for Peace Corps programs in Turkmenistan and Latvia prior to starting a career in the private sector. Marvin is an avid tennis player and served on the advisory committee of a city-owned tennis facility in Oakland, CA.

DIRECTOR OF PROGRAMMING AND TRAINING
KATHRYN GOLDMAN

DPT Kathryn Goldman has officially started her work with Peace Corps Thailand. She has an extensive background in international development and fifteen years of experience, including 4 based overseas, in project management including planning, implementation, monitoring and reporting. Kathryn is a RPCV from Togo and she is very excited to be in Thailand.